

LOVE-MAD MEN TRY TO END THEIR LIVES BY LEAPS FROM WINDOWS

One Grieved for Wife, Other
Pined When Young Girl
Spurned Him.

Two insane men in Williamsburg tried to take their lives in identical fashion early to-day, then fought policemen who strove to restrain them and nearly caused the death of the bluecoats.

William Tasker, fifty-three years old, a knitter in a woolen mill, lived with his wife at No. 127 Grove street. His wife died nine months ago, and the grief of not being able to see her again weighed on the widower more and more heavily. Last night when he began to show signs of irrationality the son asked George Tannenbaum, a neighbor, to come to the apartment and spend the night. But early this morning, despite the united efforts of the two men, Tasker made a move to throw himself from the third-story window.

Policeman Ellinger of the Hamburg avenue station heard the crash of glass as the window sash went out and ran up to take a hand in the desperate struggle in the apartment. The policeman leaped upon Ellinger the instant he appeared, beat him with his fists and nearly tore his coat from him. Ellinger drew his whistle for assistance and Policeman Schneiderman came racing to the rescue.

Together they managed to subdue Tasker and he was taken in a strait-jacket to the insane ward of the Kings County Hospital.

Anthony Rastek, a love-sick youth, nineteen years old, who lived at No. 141 Greenpoint avenue, was the second insane patient the policemen had to struggle with. It seems that the fair one whom Rastek loved had given him the cold shoulder, and brooding over this turned his mind. He tried to jump out of a second-story window in his home early to-day and the shouts of his family brought Policeman Draheim of the Greenpoint avenue station to the scene.

As in the other instance, the single policeman found the task too great for him and he drew his whistle. Policeman Murray answered. They tied the raving youth with sheets until the arrival of Dr. Fiske of the Eastern District Hospital. Then, when they unlocked the doors to set the patient into a strait-jacket, he lashed out at the ambulance surgeon, wounding him about the head with his fists.

The boy was finally handcuffed and taken to the Kings County Hospital.

SOCIETY GIFTS IN LOOT OF MALLISTER HOME.

Presents From "400" Taken in Robbery of House of Son of Former Social Mentor.

Through a search being made by detectives in this city, it became known yesterday that loot obtained by thieves who on Nov. 8 entered the home of Howard Hall McAllister, son of the late Ward McAllister, society leader, consisted of silverware souvenirs given to Ward McAllister by wealthy hosts and hostesses, such as the Astors and other members of the Four Hundred. The value of the silver is set at $2,000 by H. H. McAllister. The souvenirs include pieces of plate used at the "Eaton Dinner" in 1884, of the ball held in the Academy of Music in honor of the then Prince of Wales, of the first cotillion dinner ever held at Newport, where Ward McAllister was the host and of various dinners at the old Delmonico's on Fifth avenue and Fourteenth street and at Dolworth's, which preceded Delmonico's.

CLEANSE YOUR LIVER AND BOWELS WITH DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS."

Removes the sour bile, gases and clogged-up waste without gripe or nausea. No headache, indigestion, constipation, biliousness or coated tongue.

Foul breath, coated tongue, dull, throbbing headache, stomach sour and full of gases, indigestion, biliousness and a sallow complexion mean that your thirty feet of bowels are clogged with waste matter; that these drainage organs of the body are obstructed; liver stagnant and stomach full of poisonous gases, sour bile and undigested, fermenting food not properly carried off.

Most of our ills are caused by constipated bowels. We all need a laxative sometimes; nobody can doubt that. The only question is, Which one is the best? and that isn't a question any more. Syrup of Figs, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, must act in a harmless, gentle and natural way. Syrup of Figs can be constantly used without to be around on slippery and icy days this winter, any householder will be privileged to open any one of a hundred sand boxes which are to be distributed about the city and get busy with the work of sand sprinkling the streets. He need stand in no fear of arrest for violating one of the many city ordinances for Street Cleaning Commissioner "Big Bill" Edwards has had an understanding with the Police Commissioner on that score—so, Mr. Citizen, your work is cut out and will not be interfered with.

Sand boxes have been placed at convenient points on smooth streets, particular attention being observed in locating boxes at steep street grades. Each box will contain a cubic yard of sand, equipped with a shovel marked D. S. C. N. Y., with which the spreading may be done.

The Commissioner says that the sand will be used liberally in order to prevent pedestrians and horses from slipping, thus causing interference with traffic.
